SPECIAL EVENT: GALLERY READINGS WITH MEDIUM ANTHONY OLIVETO AND PSYCHIC KARIN MARCELLO

Please join us this Saturday, March 27th from 6:00 to 8:00pm, when Karin Marcello, a fourth generation psychic, medium, and healer, will be holding a very special gallery reading along with Anthony Oliveto, a highly gifted medium who specializes in contacting people on the other side. Both psychic practitioners have been gifted since birth. For those in attendance Karin will use Tarot cards, clairvoyance, and clairaudience to receive messages, while Anthony will receive messages directly from spirits on the other side, as well as pinpointing specific names of those living and deceased. This gallery reading will offer specific spiritual messages to some of the guests who are intuitively selected in the session.

Karin is a fourth generation Psychic and Reiki practitioner as well as an award winning Master of Humanities. She has been interviewed by News 12, A&E, and the WE Networks, and featured in articles by Newsday, Ins & Outs Magazine and other local papers. Intuition and psychic dreams have always provided guidance for herself and others and predicted would be events such as the presidential election ballot fiasco of 2000 and psychic dreams about 9/11 twenty years prior to the event. Karin is descendant from a line of healers and psychics. Her great grandmother was a devout faith healer in a village in Italy. Her uncles were profound automatic writers and well known authors of their time. Karin is grateful to have this family gift. She consistently refines her abilities through teaching and attending advanced psychic development courses, seminars, and healings both nationally and internationally.

Anthony has been hearing "the dead" since he was a young child. Like most people with such a gift, at first he did not understand it and believed something was wrong with him. He tried to suppress it for quite a while, until his grandmother passed away and he found that his abilities became much stronger. Anthony began to realize these feelings were actually souls reaching out to him, looking for help and telling him he must not suppress his ability to reach out to them any longer. He came to understand and appreciate his gift, wanting to help these souls find the peace they are seeking in their eternal life. In doing this it became apparent he also gave peace and comfort to people still here in this life. Anthony wants to share with people what he says the souls want us to know: "that we never truly die...their earthly bodies are gone, but they are always with us and see what is going on in our daily lives." Through speaking to people who've lost loved ones, Anthony is continuing to learn and strengthen his gift. His goal is to go "above and beyond" in counseling -- to help those of us here who still grieve in loss, to bring us peace, and help us heal emptiness we feel in our hearts.
